

2022 Induction

Ian Reval

For continuous and passionate impact on South Australian Baseball through excellence in Playing & Umpiring

Ian debuted in Division 1 for Woodville in the 1981/82 season and within a couple of years was selected in the Claxton Shield in 1984/85 being selected for 5 Claxton Shield series.

In 1989/90 he was selected in the Adelaide Giants team, pitching in 5 games.

In the local competition he transferred from Woodville to Glenelg in 1993 for 3 seasons, winning the 1996 Capps Medal. The next season he transferred to Sturt for 2 seasons before moving back to Woodville, where he retired in 2002 after 21 seasons.

After retiring from playing Ian became an umpire, winning the Paul Begg Umpire of the Year award 4 times, and was selected in the All Star Team as an Umpire 7 times.

Ian is the only person to be selected in the All Star Team as a Player & Umpire.
